Like so many kids, they once dreamt they'd be famous cricketers, representing their country. But funnily enough, things haven't turned out that way.

So 20 years later, on the cusp of sporting oblivion, they return to the game they loved as boys and form The Guild Cricket Club - former backyard heroes assembled on the strength of their collective imagination.

Building to an historic showdown in the Kingdom of Bhutan, Beyond the Backyard is the story of a bold quest for a little sporting glory.
